It is with considerable pleasure that we welcome the students of Gettysburg College, Seminary, Academy and High School, and again extend to them a most cordial invitation to enjoy our varied programs of feature photoplays and first run vaudeville presentations. We have always sought to provide the highest character entertainment possible to secure for Gettysburg. We want the Majestic theatre to be the community playhouse, not only for the residents of Gettysburg, but for those who are here only a few months out of the year. We will be glad to extend personal greetings to each and every student.
